THE GALLUP POLL..

Voice of the People

WILL APPEAR IN

THE MARION STAR

is happy to announce that it has become a member of the American Institute of Public Opinion, joining more than 100 other leading American newspapers such as the New York Times, The Chicago Daily News, the Philadelphia Bulletin, The Cleveland Plain Dealer, The Pittsburgh Press, The Baltimore Sun, the Los Angeles Times, The Washington Post.

Starting Next Monday

The Star will publish Gallup Polls news reports of public opinion four days each week — Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. These reports will cover opinion not only in America, but in Canada, Britain, Australia, and Sweden as well, where similar polls are conducted by the affiliate Canadian, British, Australian, and Swedish Institutes of Public Opinion.

IMPARTIAL

The Gallup surveys are an importial method of measuring nation-wide sentiment on questions of vital national significance, sponsored by leading newspapers of all political complexions, Democratic, Republican, and Independent.

SCIENTIFIC

The Gallup Poll depends for its accuracy upon the modern, scientific sampling method which questions a representative cross-section of the country's population. It interviews men and women, the young and the old, the rich and the poor, the urbanite and the farmer, the Democrat, the Republican, the Independent.

AUTHORITATIVE

Reliability of the polls has been firmly established by more than 100 elections, presidential, congressional, state and local. It has never picked the wrong candidate in an election. It has, in fact, come within an average of slightly less than $4\frac{\sigma}{10}$ of absolute accuracy of the actual balloting.

The guys who don't say much

YOU can see them in any American crowd, in any American town, in any American discussion.

The guys who don't say much.

But they're the salt of the earth.

They think and they feel and they know. They have an inner sense of what's right and what's wrong that no mountains can shake and no babbling can hide.

Reading their papers, listening to their radios, these past few years they've felt trouble, bad trouble, closing in on them. They sensed there was plenty wrong. Now they know there is!

For the first time in 25 years, somebody is trying to push these quiet people around. Somebody is saying liberty is too good for the average man. And the terrible part of it is that these somebodies are bloodthirsty madmen.

They want to change things here as they've changed things in other decent countries. They don't like the confident air you can breathe in America . . . that you can see in the friendly wave of a hand to a neighbor . . . in the good-natured jostling of a crowd at a ball game . . in the unsuspicious greeting you give to a stranger . . . in the clanging, sweaty, laughing, contemptuous way we build, tear down, and build again!

Change that, eh? That's America!

And the people who don't say much are beginning to think hard now. They're stirring-they're rising. And when they do converge into a torrent, they can overwhelm anything, on this earth, or its waters, or in the air above it. But they'd better do it quickly for there's just no time to lose!

Some of them can, some of them are, going into our Army, and our Navy, and our Air Force. Some of them can, some of them are, building our guns, our tanks, our ships, our

All of them can, all of them should, take their money out of pay checks and go without things even when it pinches, to buy Defense Savings Bonds!

They can save their dimes into quarters . . . their quarters into dollars to give us still more guns and tanks and planes and ships so that we can all have a better place to live in, where no such danger as this shall come again; and so our children may know a far better world, a far happier time.

The guys who don't say much are buying a share in America!

Questions and Answers about Bonds and Stamps

- O. How much do Defense Bonds cost?
- A. $18.75, $57.50, $75, and up. (In 10 years, you get $25, $50, or $100.)
- Q. Do I have to pay at least $18.75 all at once?
- A. No. You can get Defense Stamps for as little as 10 cents. When you get $18.75 worth, you change it for a Bond. There are also Stamps for 25 cents, 50 cents, $1, and $5. You get attractive albums to stick them in.
- Q. Can I get my money back if I need it?
- A. Yes. After 60 days, your Government will buy your Bond or part of it back. with interest to date.
- Q. If I lose my Bond, or it's burned up, am I out of luck?
- A. No. A duplicate will be issued on proof of loss.

- Q. Can my youngster buy Bonds and Stamps!
- A. Certainly. Thousands of youngsters are buying them today.
- Q. How will my money help the country!
- A. It will actually buy defense implements. And the more money raised the less each implement will cost the lower prices will be.
- Q. Where can I buy Defense Bonds and Stampa?
- A. You can buy Bonds at your post office or bank. You can buy Stamps there, and in many stores.

As a national policy, gasoline rationing can he justified by the fact that Japan robbed the United States of 90 per cent of its rubber supply by the successful affack on Pearl Harbor; it was the hardest blow at this country's national economy that could have been riruck. It is too bad that Washington has minimized the gravity of the situation in what apparently was desire to soothe the people's nerves over the distister.

In addition to the national need to conserve rubber, Germany's successful submarine raiding on Atlantic coastal shipping has made gasoline rationing in ensiern states essential for another reason—an actual shortage of gasoline. All the hair-splitting and figure quoting that have been done to prove and disprove this have not affered by so much as a single gallon the fact that Germany has sunk many tankers and in general tred up coastal slipping. The east's gasoline supply today is being furnished as the expensy of railroad and truck traffic acutely needed for other nurroses.

Many weeks ago Sen. Brooks of Illinois proposed something that sounded at the time as though it could make plenty of trouble for submarines working in close to shore. Since he spoke, the raiders have begun to operate in the Gulf of Mexico and the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Utilize some of the thousands of low-powered planes owned in the United States to make an "umbrella" over coastal shipping, Sen. Brooks proposed. Equipped with two-way radios and depth charges, designed to fly slowly and with thousands of civilian pilots available to man them, the planes are a potential military asset of great value. All that needs to be done is to use them; it will take a little organizing. No one paid the slightest attention then. Perhaps if the senator would speak up again, someone might pay attention now. .

Electric Power Outlook

People Virtually Sure To Have Part in Conservation Program.

By JAMES MARLOW and WILLIAM PINKERTON

WASHINGTON, May 25—(Wide World)—If you have a little list entitled "Sacrifices I made to help win the war," you might write in lightly, in pencil, the word "power."

Before the year is out, Americans in scattered areas will be learning, by doing without it, the basic role of electricity in the life of a modern community.

The little savings in the home may be voluntary. People will be urged to cut down on the bot water bester, the vacuum cleaner, the jadio; to keep home cooking and lighting at a minimumespecially during those critical "peak load" hours from 5 to 8 or 9 at night.

In public places, power shortages will force themselves ou your attention-theater marquees will darken, street ears may run unheated, show-windows will biackout, greet-white-way billboards will dim and night sports will disappear. ingenious businessman who has kent a non-essential nonwar plant in operation despite priorities, conversion orders, manpower drains and all may find power entroning the final, killing

Summer Outlook Good

With the sun's cooperation in lighting the land, and enough rain to keep the hydro-electric rivers flowing through the dams, we'll get through the summer without any extra fuss over power.

The fall and winter are another story Late summer often brings a dry season that cuts down the output of water-power plants, I been practically cut off, The fall will bring hundreds of new or converted industrial plants into full war production, many on a 24-hour, seven-day basis. Or course, the days lengthen and the weather gers chill, and house-wives start lighting the lamos before dinner and cooking good, big,

If power runs short in the months to come, don't expect any national panacea. Power people say shortages will develop on a regional basis, and the remedies will vary from place to place.

As a precaution, nower lines already are cutting across the old fouding grounds between government-ownership and private ownership, linking together both kinds of power for a single delivery to shortage-centers in areas like the Pacific northwest, the southeast and the southwest

When power runs short in places, these "peol" wires cornecting one power system with another will maintain the flow of electricity into necessary war

WASHINGTON, May 25 -- The emphatic that there is too much of it affeat and I don't believe ever before has he dean inced Washington as being a worse oflender than all the rest of the country put together.

There's a good reason for his warrung. Washington has become the last free news center of the world on stories dealing with the war. Yet Washington, for all its imprecedented demonstration of unity of war effort, (the records of the Civil and even World War I are far less admirable than the present war in the matter of namonal capital unity) still is a democracy operating on a political basis.

In the Axis rations, news is manufactured to sur the war and propaganda machines

Still, all the important information available to the United Nations flows through Westington. The state department is in constant touch with every friendby nation in the world. The army and payy have the farts of war as rapidly as they can be transmitted. Most of these facts are placed at the disportl of the senres of bureaus, agencies, and

It's the number that does the damage and ait's ugh I don't presume to interpret the President, I think that is upat he was referring to. The lantastic, warped misinformation that floats on the fringe of Washington officialdom is startling. For a dime a dozen, you could get "the actual numbers" of ships lost at Pearl Harbor. The "inside stories'' on Bataan, the "rent facts' about the bombing of Tokyo the "bonest-to-goodness reasons" for our troops landing in Ireland have been as thick oriars in a blackberry paith The sad part of it is that some of these were planted by Axis agents and propagandists That, in part at least is why the President delivered his ecibalspanking.

> > they can, and we'll do the same."

In response to a question as to why March was selected as the barometer, Mr. Barnes stated that it was the belief that customers and purchasers can remember March prices in general. and also that they would be able to remember prices a month back. He defined inflation as a decrease in supply and an increase in demand resulting in an uncontrolled and unwarranted rise in line in Michigan, asserting that prices. Price control, Mr. Barnes stated, is necessary for the win-ning of the war, in that it will check inflation, thereby helping to finance the war from the current income. It will help win peace. save money for future spending to create peace-time jebs, he stated. From the standpoint of benefit to the consumer it will stabilize the cost of living. The consumer's responsibility. Air. Barnes pointed out, is to know the regulations and buy only in accordance with them, cooperate with the retailer and discuss prices with him to prevent unnecessary and expensive complaints. Use of Sales Slip.

The customer's sales slip is his protection. Rules for seasonal items are just coming out, Mr. Barnes stated, and are based on past corresponding seasons. Most of the farm product are not as yet in the price ceiling list and points to be decided include a determination of when a farm product ceases to be a farm product. Housewives may complain price ceiling irregularitles nearest ration board, of which there are 9,000 at present and more will be added. Mr. Barnes said.

There will be "black markets" already started," he said. Black markets, which amount to bootlegging, once meant breaking the law and running the risk of penalty; now it means defeat for America in this war of survival as well as ponalties, he stated. Canada's experience has been very valuable to us, Mr. Barnes pointed out, and stated that the black markets in England are now manageable.

Another natural thing is for them to try to forget the event, and in doing so, they may by a process of suggestion, forget something else which is a part of themselves. This is the condition which is known as hysteria. The best diff tion I have heard of the psychological condition of the indior symptoms of hysteria is the disided personality.

These Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde individuals are not at all a product of Stevenson's imagination. There are plouty of real examples in which an individual has a split personality and that some time he Mi. B. It does not necessarily follow that, as in the cases of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and determed from the first twents male. The last some time he Mi. B.
